

Coach Harper Starts Scheming Today To Humble Little Giants

WABASH NEXT ON NOTRE DAME LIST

Little Giants Expected to Come Up Here With Blood in Their Eye.

Wabash next. Following Notre Dame's hard earned victory over the Haskell Indians, Coach Harper and Rockne will today begin a special program of preparation for the Little Giants game here a week from Saturday.

Despite the fact that Wabash was beaten by Purdue Saturday, the Crawfordsville lads gave the Hoosiers a hard fight all the way and Lafayette men had their hands full from start to finish.

Wabash Out to Win. Wabash has had its eyes on Notre Dame since the opening of the fall season. The Little Giants are out to win, in such a thing is possible, and in the event that they can't slip a victory over Harper's men, they are determined to give the local huskies the fight of their lives.

According to advance reports, Wabash is planning to storm Notre Dame. It is said that arrangements are being made for a great delegation of fans, headed by a band, to come here to cheer on the Little Giants against the gold and blue. Interest in the Notre Dame game knows no bounds down Crawfordsville way and nothing would please the rooters there more than a victory over the Hoosiers.

There will be a big touch of local interest in the fight. Bacon, star fullback on the Wabash eleven, is a South Bend boy. So are McInerney, the big Notre Dame right tackle, "Chet" Grant, one of Harper's quarterbacks and Berkeley, a substitute end.

Expect Record Crowd. Notre Dame authorities expect to handle the largest crowd in the history of local athletics at the Wabash contest.

The Notre Dame squad is in bad shape at present. Coach Harper is hoping that John Miller's hand will heal sufficiently to allow him to start against Wabash. Kyzdewski is still suffering from an infection of his arm and Ferguson and Malone were painfully but not seriously hurt in the game last Saturday.

The Hoosiers will have no game next Saturday, but the work between now and the Wabash contest will be sufficient to make up for the lack of a contest this week.

MAROON STOCK IN BIG JUMP

Clean Cut Victory Over Indiana Gives Chicago Rooters Renewed Hope.

CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Championship aspirations are budding in the camp of the university of Chicago football eleven as a result of its surprisingly clean cut victory over Indiana Saturday in the first game of the "big nine" season.

The triumph re-establishes Chicago as a strong contender for the western conference honors, although critics agree that Minnesota still has the edge. The Maroons crushed Indiana with a new fighting spirit. The eleven was fifty per cent improved over the aggregation that took the field a week ago. The plays were executed with more polish, the backs had power to their drives and there was only little blundering in the signals.

Hoosiers Eliminated. The defeat of Indiana means its elimination as a possible contender for the "big nine" championship honors.

The defeat of Illinois at the hands of Colgate was a shock to supporters of Illini, who had hoped for a possible victory, or at least a closer score. It was the first defeat for the Illinois eleven since 1913.

Illinois must prepare to face a high-powered eleven in meeting Ohio state next Saturday. The Ohioans buried Oberlin under a 125 to 0 score yesterday.

Badgers to Be Reckoned. Minnesota, showing steady improvement, rolled up another big score yesterday, trouncing North Dakota 47 to 7. Wisconsin's victory over South Dakota revealed that the Badgers must be regarded as a strong contender for the "big nine" honors.

The leaders outside the conference, Notre Dame and Michigan, came through their games with comparative easy victories. The Haskell Indians fell victims to Notre Dame's rushes and Mount Union was humbled by Michigan.

BIG MATCHES SCARCE

Jack Dillon Will Meet Tim O'Neil Tuesday Night.

International News Service. NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—That the local boxing season has not yet attained full momentum is evidenced by the scarcity of really big matches at the various clubs. The biggest bout of the week is scheduled for the Broadway Sporting club of Brooklyn for tomorrow night. In it Jack Dillon, the Hoosier lightweight, making his second appearance in the same ring, will oppose Tim O'Neil, a newcomer from Chicago. Most boxing enthusiasts are aware of the prowess of Dillon, but little is known of the Chicago boxer, who comes here with a reputation of having scored a knockout victory over Tom McMahon and is also credited with two even bouts with George Chip.

Neither line was threatened, except in the third period, when the villagers carried the ball within a yard of the Wabash goal, where they were held for downs.

GENGLER AND SMITH TO SHOW HERE NOVEMBER 13

Crack Bowling Pair, Now Traveling Over Country, to be in City Two Days.

Practically all arrangements have been completed for the reception of Jimmy Smith and John Gengler in this city next month, the bowling pair having been dated for afternoon and evening performances at the Orpheum and Barden alleys. They will appear at the former place on Monday, Nov. 13, and show a day later at the Barden alleys.

While these men will give exhibitions of fancy and different styles of bowling, they will also engage in matches, which will give local cracks a chance to test their skill against the best in the business.

The Smith-Gengler combination has already left New York and is now touring New York state, from whence they will invade Pennsylvania and Ohio. They are scheduled to reach Chicago on Oct. 30, and will remain in the western metropolis for two weeks. South Bend being their first stopping place after leaving Chicago.

Local Boys Rolling Well.

Undoubtedly the steadiest of the local herd of bowlers at this time is Walter Messick, rolling with the Schaefer & Platters and Hoosier Cream teams. Scarcely a week has passed but what he has not turned in a 400 score and this week is no exception, only in that he doubled his stack, negotiating the route on two successive evenings with the cigar store team.

Only two other players were able to reach the charmed circle during the past week, Harvey Hager of the Eagles rolling the derby route for 606, his second offense for the season. Eddie Flanagan of the Orpheum Ponies,
